move to fantastic new premises in the heart of Palma!!

Friday marks the first complete week of business for bluewater crew & training in our brand new premises in the old town (La Lonja) Palma! If you have not heard about this yet then apologies... much fun was had by all at our opening fiesta on Monday evening!

After 8 successful years of business in Portal Nous the Crew Training Centre has relocated to a new facility complete with two classrooms and a Navigation Simulator to be more convenient for the crew that we work with... You can find our new office right in the heart of the yachting scene on Mallorca... right in between the Ritzi hostel & the corner bar!

We can now be found at: Calle San Juan 4, 07012 Palma de Mallorca...
