

LUXURY YACHT STEWARDESS TRAINING BY MAGNUMS BUTLERS INTERNATIONAL

Wednesday, 27 January 2010

Antibes, France boasts another luxury yacht stewardess training program starting on 12 April 2010. Professionally recognised and fully accredited by the prestigious international Professional Yachtsmen's Association, for luxury super-yachts, crew will be trained in a diverse range of duties and responsibilities.

"Students will be equipped with food and beverage skills, interior knowledge, personal guest care, how to manage demanding clientele and most importantly, develop a keen eye for detail," states Josephine.

For a limited time Magnums Butlers International will be offering early bird specials and to take advantage of these offers time is of the essence.
