The Professional Yachtsman's Association (PYA), with over 1000 active members, representing yacht captains and crew worldwide has announced that their office staff has been enhanced with the addition of Karen Comport as Office Administrator. Karen's background an executive assistant in many parts of the world, her fluency in several languages and strong computer skills will enable her to significantly improve the efficiency and smooth operation of the PYA, where she will work closely with long-time PYA Administrator Bridget Featherby. Having grown up on sailing yachts, Karen will certainly understand the needs of the PYA members, and we welcome her on board as part of the team.
