

REGIONE AUTONOMA DELLA SARDEGNA

IL PRESIDENTE

Dear all,

this year the new government of the Region of Sardinia wants to reinforce the positive and welcoming message sent to all tourists who choose Sardinia, and in particular to all yachters from all over the world.

It is, therefore, with pleasure, that I announce that one of the first acts of the new government has been to abolish the so called "luxury tax".

Hence, from now on no tax will be due by anyone who wishes to moore on our hospitable island. Instead, you will find a warm welcome and a wish for a pleasent stay.

We look forward to your arrival at our ports for another great holiday season.

The President of the Region Sardinia

Ugo Cappellacci