

PRESS RELEASE

Sent: Friday, 14 May, 2010

Superyacht Crew Training Course Achieves PYA Accreditation

Australia's leading crew training school Superyacht Onboard Hospitality Training (SOHT) has been awarded Professional Yachtsmen's Association (PYA) full course accreditation for its 5-day Professional Yacht Hospitality Interior Crew course.

Principal Trainer, Donna Morris, says "I am proud that SOHT has been successful in gaining this highly prestigious accolade from the Superyacht industry's leading representative professional body".

The PYA is based in Antibes, France; the hub of professional yachting in the Mediterranean. Its members are made up of yachting professionals in the superyacht industry, and it has been the leader in the development of the high professional standards the superyacht industry demands, and strives to continue to represent all yacht crew, taking the course accreditation role very seriously.

SOHT certificates now carry the PYA Accreditation logo and with it, and the international recognition that this carries.

SOHT is the only training school delivering PYA accredited Interior Crew courses in Australia.

Superyacht Onboard Hospitality Training offers intensive professional training for those wishing to work on Superyachts as Stewards and Stewardesses to the efficiency standards expected in the industry. We also pride ourselves on personal service and mentoring of our students throughout their careers.

Superyacht Onboard Hospitality Training is part of the Australasian Superyacht Services group; Australia's national superyacht agency network.

Further information about the training, please visit: www.superyachtstewardess.com

training@superyachts.com.au